

162nd Fighter Wing Radio PSAs – 2009

162nd Fighter Wing
Office of Public Affairs
Arizona Air National Guard
1650 East Perimeter Way
Tucson, Ariz. 85706-6052
Phone: (520) 295-6192
FAX: (520) 295-6727

162fw.ang.af.mil

30 sec Radio PSA – 162nd Fighter Wing Mission

Today's Arizona Air National Guard is on duty full time to protect our state and nation while securing the American way of life for future generations. The men and women of the 162nd Fighter Wing fly F-16 Fighting Falcons from Tucson's international airport to protect our skies and train future fighter pilots to carry on the mission. To learn more about Arizona's Citizen Airmen visit 162fw.com.

30 sec Radio PSA – Arizona Air National Guard Recruiting

The men and women of the Arizona Air National Guard protect America and defend freedom from right here in Tucson. These brave men and women fly the F-16 Fighting Falcon and the MQ-1 Predator to protect our nation, and our state. You too can join the Guard, and stay close to home, while experiencing the pride of serving your community. You'll earn money for college, and great benefits, while gaining the experience of a lifetime. For more information, visit GOANG.com or call 295-7000.