162FW Inspector General (IG) Complaint Resolution Program

- The IG serves as an extension of the Wing Commander by acting as his/her eyes and ears to be alert to issues that affect the wing.
- Give your Chain of Command a chance to solve the problem (experience has shown that commanders and supervisors are the best people equipped to resolve complaints).
- IG's have a sworn duty to serve as fair and impartial fact-finders and problem solvers.
- Any Fraud, Waste and Abuse (FWA) and violations of law, AFIs or policy should be reported. If you are not sure your concern is a reportable IG matter, contact the IG for guidance.
- IG's are not policy makers and can only recommend, not order a resolution.
- Disagreements with your supervisor(s) over management styles or a 'personality conflict' does not constitute an injustice or mismanagement.
- You can contact the IG through phone calls, email, anonymously, or in-person.
- You are protected under the Whistleblower Protection 10 USC § 1034 against reprisals, restrictions, or any retaliatory personnel actions in contacting the IG.
